My name is Edem Dzata from Sokode in Volta Region of Ghana. I am a Pastor in the Evangelical Presbyterian Church, Ghana, established in 1847 by the Bremen Mission, Germany. I hold Bachelor of Theology and Master of Philosophy (Study of Religions) from Trinity Theological Seminary, Legon Ghana and the University of Ghana respectively. I am a doctoral student at University of Cape Coast, Ghana and presently, short time scholarship holder at Mission Academy, University of Hamburg. Mission Academy is a 'home', - a place of lovely people and serene environment for academic work and religious activities. My interest of research is Religion and Human Rights. I am presently working on contextualizing the Convention on the Rights of the Child in the religio-cultural milieu of Tongor people in Ghana, for my doctoral thesis. I am calm and love making friends.
